Dear Mr. Newell:-

I am sending a few

THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY
156TH STREET, WEST OF BROADWAY
NEW YORK

December 19, 1925

It has become a custom among a number of our members, as you perhaps know, to extend the Christmas spirit to our Museum and its collections. Last Christmas, and the year previous, nearly every branch of Numismatics was represented in these gifts. If there is something in your field of collecting which you wish to send, even but a duplicate, it may fill a gap in our cabinets, and we shall be glad to have it.

With the Season's Greetings,

Very truly yours,

Sydney P. Noe

Secretary

My dear Mr. Noe;-

I have your note of December 19th in regard to Christmas gifts to the Society. I will look over my collection and see if I have anything I can send.

Very sincerely yours,

Henry Barton Jacobs

My dear Mr. Noe:-

I was laid up when I received your kind note of December nineteenth. It is probably just as well, for I had, I am sorry to say, nothing which would have availed your Society. Pray pardon the delay of my acknowledgment.

Faithfully Yours,

Secretary

Dear Mr Voe

Your two kind favors of the 19th have both been duly received

There has been such a dearth of information as regards foreign paper money of late, and so great a return to metallic issues that I fear I will have to cudgel my brains to even make a poor showing. Paper money is like prohibition, it seems to have festered out. And I fear it would hardly be policy to mention in the report

Now as regards a Christmas Gift to the Society, I have not gattered in anything for such a long time that the cupboard is bare, and I surely do not want to send duplicates of what the Society already has.

So I am sending about the only thing I can think of that may not be a duplicate - one of the full faced coins of Henry II. of England, that I think is a bit unusual.

With best wishes of a Merry Christmas to all

I remain

Yours very sincerely
Henry Russell Browne

Foster Stearns, Esq.
22 Brimmer Street
Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Stearns:

Your Christmas gift to our Society arrived yesterday, and I wish to thank you very much indeed for the four Russian pieces, which we are very glad to display among our Christmas gifts.

Can you tell me anything further about these Russian pieces? Why, when, and where they were made? I have a note with regard to the larger piece - that is, that it was made by the Russian bank in Mongolia or Manchuria for use in that part of the country.

Again thanking you very sincerely for your support and continued interest in the growth of our Collections, and wishing you the Compliments of the Season,

Very truly yours,

Curator

Henry Russell Drowne, Esq.

Dear Mr. Drowne:

I was very glad to receive the coin of Henry II which you so kindly sent as a Christmas gift to the Society. This is a variant of one which we have.

So far, nothing has developed in the matter about which I spoke to you some while ago. Mr. Huntington thought it was a good idea to give it a trial.

Trusting to see you at the Annual Meeting and with every good wish for the New Year, I am,

Very truly yours,

Curator
